Being a good neighbour to Bendigo's Bushland

As a city surrounded by forest, Bendigo is an amazing place to explore nature – but we also need to take good care of it.

Visit www.bendigonature.org to unlock some of Bendigo's best-kept natural secrets and discover how you can help look after its forests, native plants and animals.

Learn about:

- What makes Bendigo's bushland special
- Creating a habitat garden
- Stopping weeds at the source
- Keeping your pet and our wildlife safe
- Exploring your local reserves
- And other ways to get involved
